God gives us water. Can you point to the water? Water is good to drink. And water is good to take a bath in. Thank You, God, for giving us water.

“God gives me good things”

(based on Matthew 7:11).

Say the Bible Words and have your child look in a mirror. Say, “God will give you good things.”

God gives me water to drink
(pretend to drink)
and to wash dishes in my sink.
(pretend to wash a dish)
The water falls from the sky
(wiggle fingers down)
to water the flowers so dry.

Bible Words

“God gives me good things”

(based on Matthew 7:11).

Put your hands around your child’s hands and clap hands together while saying the Bible Words.

(Sing to the tune of “The Farmer in the Dell”)
 God gives me food.
 Yes, God gives me food.
 Thank You, thank You,
 thank You, God.
 God gives me food.

(Also sing about clothes, a home, and water.)

Storybook Time

As you and your child enjoy some books together, point out some things God gives us. Say, “Look. There’s some water. God gives us cool water. There’s an apple. God gives us juicy apples. Thank You, God!”

Pillowcase Fun

Put a few items in a pillowcase, such as an apple, banana, water bottle, and a piece of clothing. Have your child pull out one item at a time and name the item (or you can name it). Say, “That’s an apple. God gives us apples.” Do for each of the items in the pillowcase.
